Consent 3: Examples, Feedback, and Telling Others About Our Program

Optional. Each choice is separate. Saying no changes nothing about your visit.

How to use this form

This English form is the official consent that you sign. A Taglish reading aid can be read aloud to you, or you can read it yourself. The reading aid is not signed.

There is no official Filipino or Taglish translation of the NBO yet, so please ask about anything that is unclear.

Many families are glad to help other parents learn. Nothing below is required, and you may choose some, all, or none. Our use is educational and informational only. Nothing will be sold, and nothing is used to advertise products. “The Centers” means:

- ConnectEd Kids Therapy Center (legal name: ConnectEducation Kids Therapy Center)
- CORE (Center For Occupations, Rehabilitation, and Early Intervention), operated by Connected Journeys, Inc.
- SPACES by ConnectEd Kids

Part A: Written examples for teaching

A1. Anonymous written examples from the practitioner’s notes or narrative, used in teaching at the Centers (no names, with details changed so you cannot be recognized).

☐ Yes

☐ No

Part B: Telling others about the free observation program and the Centers

The purpose is only to let other families and professionals know about the free observation program and about the Centers’ programs and services, in an informational way, on the Centers’ own social media pages, website, flyers, and talks. Nothing will be sold. Nothing will be given to other companies. You may withdraw at any time. If you do, your material will be removed from the Centers’ own pages within [7] days. Printed materials or posts that others have already shared cannot be taken back.
