B. Still to confirm (the things I could not find in your materials)

Open item	Why it matters	Who
Mentor name and email	You think it is Lise Johnson or Susan (surname to check). The Handbook's authors include Lise C. Johnson and Susan Minear, so check your email for the exact names and addresses. You need them to submit; they go in the tracker (16) and the checklist (18).	You
Exact certification deadline	You said December. The date drives the plan in section C.	You or your mentor
Certificate Request Form link, and any fee	Likely in your "NBO Certification Process" Dropbox folder or from the Institute. I could not open that folder.	You or your mentor

Open item	Why it matters	Who
Monthly mentoring meetings	Your Module 1 overview slide appears to show them. Confirm dates and what to bring.	Your mentor
Is your mentor comfortable with pre-certification visits and with this consent wording?	The Handbook expects certification before clinical use, so confirm these free practice visits are what the program intends.	Your mentor
Where the visits happen and your safety	For your safety, consider holding visits at ConnectEd Kids Therapy Center, or bring a practice buddy. Tell the Center your schedule. Use the Center's number, never your personal one.	You
Visit length, and the Nov 16 end time	Both appear on the poster and in captions.	You
Recording: optional or required?	The consent is drafted as optional. You can require it, but it must be stated up front.	You
Retention period, secure storage, and a privacy check	Health information about a baby is sensitive personal information. Ask the Data Privacy Officer to review Consents 1 to 3 and the protocol.	Data Privacy Officer (Sheila Celeste)
Insurance and legal check	You said there is no insurance (cash basis). The consents already state the risks and that no result is promised. Consider a short legal look at the three consent forms.	You or the Center's lawyer
Emergency plan	Know the nearest hospital and who to call. The cheat sheet has a stop rule for a baby in distress.	You and the Center
Taglish review	The Taglish is my draft. Have a fluent speaker read it, especially the consent reading aids.	A fluent colleague
Name Connected PH in the teaching consent?	It is your seminars brand. I named only ConnectEd Kids, CORE, and SPACES.	You
Who answers messages	Name who monitors Facebook, Instagram, and the 0906 number, and how fast they reply.	You
Equipment	Flashlight, rattle, red ball, gloves, sanitizer, blanket, the official Recording Forms and Parent Summary pages, a recording device, a pen, and printed consents.	You

C. Plan to the December deadline

Each NBO takes about 2 to 3 hours in total, including the visit, reflection, and documentation (Module 5). Plan for no more than 2 visits a day so you can finish the documents within 24 hours.

When	What	Notes
Now to Nov 10	Post the poster (04b). Confirm families. Get the mentor's name, email, exact deadline, and how long a review takes. Have the Taglish read by a fluent speaker. Print the English consents, the official forms, and the cheat sheet.	Aim for 6 or 7 confirmed families, since some will cancel.
Nov 13, 14, 16	Visits. Finish each packet (Recording Form, Parent Summary photo, Narrative) within 24 hours.	A baby seen on Nov 13 can return on Nov 20 or later.
By about Nov 18	Email your first 1 or 2 complete NBOs to your mentor and ask for quick feedback.	The guide asks for these before the rest.
Nov 19 to 28	Apply the feedback. Complete NBOs 3 to 5, including a second visit to a returning baby (at least a week after the first).	A repeat counts only if the other 4 are different babies.
Before Dec 1	Send the remaining packets. Check the coverage grid for all 18 items.	Leave a buffer before the deadline for the mentor's review.

When	What	Notes
December (before the deadline)	Complete the online Certificate Request Form.	Spell your name and credentials exactly as they should appear.

D. Submitting online safely

- Send from the Center's email, with the attachments for each NBO together. Keep the subject line free of baby or family names.
- Name files initial_GA_age_document, for example `A_39wk_2wk_RecordingForm.pdf` (add V2 for a second visit). No names in file names.
- Parent Summary photo: take it before the parent writes the baby's name, show only the first initial, crop to the form, keep the background clear, and remove the location data from the photo (or scan it instead).
- Never put the key that links initials to names in an email or a shared folder.
- Use the fillable Recording Form and Narrative Form, or type the Narrative in Word. Ask your mentor to confirm receipt.

E. Fixed in this review

- The FAQ, program overview, and parent invitation now say that, if a family agrees to recording, they also choose whether clips may be used for teaching.
- The visit script (15) now has a day-before reminder and a thank-you message, in English and Taglish.
- The certification checklist (18) now shows where to submit and what to confirm.
- New: the NBO visit cheat sheet (19), with the state guide, skip rules, and reasons.
